

Sydney Symphony hits the road to bring stunning music to Orange

Orange Civic Theatre
Cnr Byng Street and Lords Pl, Orange

Friday 7 March, 7.30pm

Sydney, 8 February 2008 –The Sydney Symphony will begin its 2008 regional touring of New South Wales with an ensemble of Australia’s finest orchestral musicians and internationally renowned pianist Jasminka Stancul in a concert at the Orange Civic Theatre on Friday 7 March.

Sydney Symphony, Managing Director, Libby Christie said: “For Sydney Symphony’s musicians and staff, regional touring is one of the most enjoyable and rewarding parts of the program, especially meeting regional audiences and supporters outside the metropolitan area.”

Liz Kenney, Acting Events Manager at Orange Civic Theatre said: "The visit of the Sydney Symphony will be an extraordinary event in the music calendar of Orange this year. The style of music making will be dynamic and exhilarating and the professionalism of the performers second to none."

The Sydney Symphony’s annual regional tour is made possible by the Federal Government through the Australia Council for the Arts, the NSW Government through Arts NSW and the NSW Departments of Primary Industries and Water and Energy, BHP Billiton, Regional Express Airlines, Xstrata Coal, Cadia Valley Operations, Telstra, Allco, Snowy Hydro and St.George.
