Rhonda Burchmore is set to thrill with her take on the great old days of Broadway. Rhonda is one of Australia's favourite performers and a major star in musical theatre, opera and cabaret as well as and the big screen.

Todd McKenney knows showbiz from every angle and has worked across stage, screen, radio and television including his role as judge since 2004 on Channel 7's 'Dancing with the Stars'. Todd, as the original Boy From Oz, will reprise some of his award-winning moments on stage.

Trisha Crowe is a rare combination of extraordinary talents with a stunning soprano voice. She has worked on numerous productions in both the UK and Australia and will wow Sydney audiences with the music of Rodgers and Hammerstein, Cole Porter and Andrew Lloyd Webber.

Joining Todd, Trisha and Rhonda will be acclaimed Australian tenor David Hobson, renowned for his performances in a wide range of roles from opera through to 'Dancing with the Stars'. He celebrated recent success with his new album 'Enchanted Way' rocketing straight into the top 20 of the ARIA chart.
